DO I NEED A COORDINATOR?

If you're excited to all do the planning and design, but you don't want to spend your wedding day stressing over the timeline and making sure everything goes off without a hitch, then you'll need a coordinator! We'll meet to review every element you've already planned and create a detailed wedding day timeline. I will communicate with your vendors and suppliers to ensure that everything is in place to run smoothly. I'll manage all aspects of your event, from the rehearsal, to vendor and decor set-up, to your sparkler exit at the end of the night. I'll troubleshoot anything that comes up, so you can celebrate without worry. You'll be able to relax and enjoy the day, knowing every detail will be taken care of.

INVESTMENT

The fee for Wedding Day Management and Coordination is only $750. I believe in complete transparency, so you won't get hit with any surprises or hidden fees.
